Juliet Lack has extensive experience of working with both the commercial sector and not-for-profits to further their financial strategy and commercial resilience. Prior to Juliet's appointment she has been the Treasurer at CDS.

Juliet is also a Trustee at Kingston Churches Action on Homelessness and The Eden Rivers Trust. She continues to advise a portfolio of clients on a range of finance and strategy.

Juliet is a Chartered accountant and holds a degree from Bristol University.

Juliet said: "I am delighted to be taking this on this role and am excited about the opportunities that lie ahead. The strength that comes from CDS being a values-led organisation with a high degree of collaboration amongst a very dedicated team is a real motivator."

Tom Bremner, Chief Executive said "I am delighted that Juliet has been appointed as Chair of CDS. We are a unique organisation where community and co-operation drives everything we do and Juliet's approach and experience will be vital in helping us shape our future and ensure we have a wider impact."
